54) Though 15000 Flags were stated to have been sent, it is seen that only 13387 Flags were actually received. There was an initial Shortage of 1613 Flags. But an acknowledgment was sent to the Resy accepting the full number before the Flags were counted. Otherwise if all the Flags had been sold a sum of Rs 937-8-0 would be due to the Indian Relief Fund. But in addition to the Shortage above noted, 4970 Flags have not been sold. The actual amount realised is Rs 521-12-0. The point for consideration therefore is whether these Flags may be got back & sent to the Resy, or whether their price may be paid to the Indian Relief Fund, as apparently it will work awkward at this distance of time to return the Flags which are indented more Talukas, and in order to further a charitable Scheme. The loss may be regarded as an additional Contribution from State Funds in connection with the War. The unsold Flags may be presented to School children & Military men on occasions such as the King Emperor's Birthday, His Highness Birthday or School Prize Distribution Days.

In continuation of my letter dated 6th March 1920, I have the honour to state that out of 900 flags received in this office and sent to the Vice President and other officers in Shimoga for sale, 297 flags were sold at cost price, 71 were distributed free to the poor students and the rest remained unsold. The amount realized from the sale of 297 flags was credited to the Treasury on the dates noted in the margin. I much regret that in this matter the officers entrusted with the work did not strictly carry out instructions partly under a misapprehension as in the case of free distribution by the Boy Scouts and partly by inattention to duty in the midst of other engrossing work. As the officers were all busily engaged in connection with the Peace Celebrations and did their duty in other respects very well I request that this omission may kindly be overlooked by Government.
